Description

Staff will continue to assist landowners with implementation of the Buffer Law including: planning, technical assistance, implementation of approved alternative practices, and tracking progress towards compliance. Assistance will include: site assessment, review of alternative practices, flagging, site inspection for compliance, enforcement for non-compliance following procedures defined within the buffer ordinance. The SWCD will notify the county when it determines a landowner is not in compliance. The SWCD will continue the monitoring of the three designated areas of the county for compliance on a yearly basis. Administration will include reporting in BuffCat and ELink, updates to the SWCD Board and any required Board approval and signature.

Staff will attend any trainings/meetings for any updates.
